Sir:

RESPONSE TO RESTRICTION REQUIREMENT

In an Office Action dated September 21, 2001, the Examiner applied a restriction requirement under 35 U.S.C. § 121 among the following claim groups:

Group I: Claims 1-35 and 72-73, directed to a method of applying pieces of material to objects;

Group II: Claims 36-57 and 71, directed to a material supply strip for use in an applicator device configured to apply pieces of material to objects; and

Group III: Claims 58-70 and 74-75, directed to an application system for applying pieces of material to objects.

Applicants elect Group I, claims 1-35 and 72-73, directed to a method of applying pieces of material to objects.

For the claims of Group I, the Office Action also contained an election of species requirement among the following allegedly distinct species:

- A1: Using two application stations to perform the claimed method; or
- B1: Using one application station to perform the claimed method.
- A2: Applying pieces of material to two different groups of objects; or
- B2: Applying pieces of material to common objects.
- A3: At least one piece of material on a first surface of the material supply strip is substantially the same piece as at least one piece of material on the second surface; or
- B3: Each surface of the material supply strip has a different piece of material.

Applicants elect the following alleged species of Group I:

- A1: Using two application stations to perform the claimed method. Claims 1-6, 8-35, and 72-73 read on this species.
- B2: Applying pieces of material to common objects. Claims 1-12, 14-35, and 72-73 read on this species.
- B3: Each surface of the material supply strip has a different piece of material. Claims 1-14, 16, 18, 20, 21-35, and 72-73 read on this species.
